

LAPA's Immigration Law Section Presents:

UNDERSTANDING H-1B PETITIONS

This MCLE seminar will be beneficial to attorneys and paralegals who want to understand how the H-1B Petition process works for American companies that utilize temporary professional workers in H-1B classification. Topics covered will include the H-1B cap, which employers are exempt from the cap, the H-1B timeline, how to meet H-1B requirements, the Labor Condition Application, prevailing wage issues, how to prepare an H-1B Petition, common pitfalls for H-1B employers, and how H-1Bs relate to student visas and green cards (permanent residency). This will be a seminar that legal professionals working in Immigration Law shouldn't miss!

Presenter and Sponsor:

Ms. Nikki Mehrpoo Jacobson is the founding partner of Jacobson & Han LLP (www.GreenCard4You.com), an internationally recognized immigration law firm. She has extensive experience in immigration law, including employment-based and family-based immigration and deportation/removal defense.
