Dear Rhonda,

Congratulations to you, your Co-Chair, the planning committee and the entire membership of LAPA on the extraordinary success of the 2006 Holiday Benefit Gala & Silent Auction.

Wow, you broke a record!

On behalf of our entire organization, thank you for all your efforts on our behalf and on behalf of our clients. We are deeply grateful for the generous contributions totaling $4,302 for Public Counsel. They will be put to good use helping provide critical legal and social services for the most disadvantaged members of our community – abused and abandoned children, homeless families, victims of domestic violence, senior citizens and victims of consumer fraud – desperately seeking justice.

On the topic of lawyers and poodle skirts, I am delighted that Karen and the poodle skirt crew were able to be there and do their part to promote Public Counsel. (I understand they are becoming so popular they may get their own sitcom.)

Once again, our heartfelt thanks for your generous support. Public Counsel is honored to work alongside you and the members of LAPA. We are honored to be your partners in the struggle for equal justice in our community.

Sincerely,

Dan Grunfeld

Thank you! - Update the Post!!!

P.S. Within the next week or two, everyone who contributed will receive a personal letter thanking them for generous contribution.
