"HOW TO FIND HIDDEN ASSETS IN TAX RETURNS"

Family Law Code Section 1101 provides that undisclosed assets may be awarded to the other spouse in 100% entirety. Family law Judgments can be overturned based on undisclosed assets. Find out how to protect your client's interests and find these hidden assets in tax returns.

Speaker Robert Watts, CPA, Gursey Schneider LLP – Forensic CPA Firm

Mr. Watts specializes in litigation accounting services and business valuations in the areas of family law and civil litigation. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, California Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Litigation Section of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants Family Law Section. He has performed a wide range of litigation accounting services including gross cash flow available for support, net spendable evaluations, pension plan allocations, characterization of assets, analysis of reimbursement claims, tracings, lifestyle analysis, business appraisals, and contract and royalty analyzing and evaluating royalty and residual interests. He has testified as an expert witness in the Superior Court of California in several counties.
