2008 California Legislative Roundup: A Review of Laws Affecting Estate Planning, Probate and Conservatorships

Featuring James Birnberg, Esq. and Matthew S. Rae, Esq.

Jim Birnberg, Esq. and Sandy Rae, Esq., in their popular "Dog & Pony Show", will discuss new California legislation and its affects on estate planning, trusts, probate, conservatorship and guardianship proceedings. They will also give their predictions for the year 2009 and their recap of 2008.

James Birnberg, Esq. is a partner in the law firm of Oldman, Cooley, Leighton, Sallus, Birnberg & Coleman, L.L.P. where he practices in the areas of estate planning, probate and trust administration and death and fiduciary income taxation. He has practiced law since 1966. He is presently a member of the Legislation Committee and Incapacity Committee of the State Bar Trust and Estates Section. Since 2002 Mr. Birnberg has been a member of the Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee to the State Judicial Council of which he has been a Legislative Chair since 2004. He was awarded the Arthur K. Marshall Award by the Los Angeles County Trust and Estates Section in 2002 and has authored a number of important papers including a chapter in California Estate Planning Book published through CEB.

Matthew S. Rae, Esq. is an attorney at the law firm of Darling, Hall & Rae. As a graduate of Duke University, he received his law degree from Stanford University and has practiced law since 1948. He was awarded the Arthur K. Marshall Award in 1984, the Spirit Award in 1998, and the Shattuck-Price Award from the Los Angeles County Bar Foundation in 1990. In addition, Mr. Rae was Chairman of the Probate and Trust Law Committee of the California State Bar in 1974 & 1975, Chairman of the Legislation Committee of the California State Bar from 1977 to 1989 and is currently on the Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee for the Judicial Council of California.
