DRAFTING GREAT CONTRACTS TO AVOID BUSINESS DISPUTES

PRESENTED BY MATTHEW R. RUNGAITIS

TO ALL ATTORNEYS, PARALEGALS & LEGAL PROFESSIONALS

Join us for a CLE covering contracts and business disputes on August 25th!

One of the main goals of legal teams is to avoid business disputes. Many times, disputes can be avoided by drafting contracts in anticipation of potential issues. In this seminar, the presenter will discuss how legal teams handle legal complexities of business disputes that can be challenging and costly. This seminar will also cover the most commonly disputed issues businesses face and how certain legal strategies, such as drafting clear and concise contracts, will increase your legal team's chances for a successful outcome.

ATTORNEY MATTHEW R. RUNGAITIS, Esq. For over 25 years, Matthew has been assisting clients on a wide range of legal matters. Matthew has his own firm in Santa Clarita, where the firm specializes in complex business litigation, general civil litigation and real estate disputes as well as medical malpractice and elder abuse. Matthew earned his undergraduate degree from The University of Minnesota in 1987 and his J.D. degree from The University of the Pacific - McGeorge School of Law in 1990. In 2007, Matthew was listed in the California Super Lawyers magazine where he was profiled for his work in elder law. Matthew is also currently an adjunct professor, teaching various courses in Paralegal Studies, and Business Law at College of the Canyons in Santa Clarita.
