

Speaker: Scott E. Rahn

Topic: Probate and Estate

Program Description: Scott Rahn, one of the leading probate and trust litigators will share his expertise on probate litigation. He will cover all areas of interest to the probate litigation practice including most common probate petitions i.e. petitions to amend/modify trusts, contests, petitions for instructions, managing a capacity or undue influence cases, Heggstad petitions, and the management of a breach of fiduciary duty cases.

Short Biography: Scott Rahn is the founding and Managing Partner of RMO LLP, a probate litigation law firm with offices in Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego, Ventura County, Miami and Kansas City focused on representing beneficiaries, executors and trustees in contested trust, estate and probate litigation matters and contested conservatorships. He can be reached at (424) 320-9444 or rahns@rmolawyers.com.